Please state the ground(s) for review (please read guidance note 1)

On 18 September 2014 Polski Mini Market was searched by North Lincolnshire Council Trading Standards using a tobacco sniffer dog as part of a national operation to clamp down on the sale of illicit tobacco. The raid was planned and based on intelligence received from the public.

At the premises was Behrooz Rahaman Awla (the Premises Licence holder) and Bilbasi Sabah (shop assistant)

The search discovered large quantities of illicit tobacco.

Tobacco seized included a combination of non-duty, counterfeit and illicit whites.

Intelligence indicates that sales of illicit tobacco have been made from these premises for a number of years. Previous raids by Trading Standards and HMRC (without search dogs) have only revealed small quantities of illicit tobacco.

As well as the criminal offences for possessing counterfeit and non-duty tobacco, there are serious safety risks associated with illicit tobacco as the manufacture of the products is uncontrolled.
