safeguarding document, and the meeting allowed members to seek assurance that all necessary arrangements were in place to ensure the wellbeing of local children and young people.

Rachel provided a detailed presentation on the report, describing ongoing work to improve local arrangements further, including by strengthening independent scrutiny of all sectors.

The Chairman then led a discussion on the presentation, with the panel asking questions about the mechanisms in place to prevent and address all forms of child exploitation, local intelligence, and training. Rachel, Jemima and Tom responded accordingly, confirming that the local arrangements were robust and wide-ranging. A further discussion on crossovers between safeguarding and youth offending was held. Officers confirmed that the local rate of youth offending compared favourably with peers. Members reflected that the report was an excellent publication, and that the panel had confidence in the local arrangements.

Resolved – (a) That Rachel Smith, Jemima Flintoff and Tom Hewis be thanked for the presentation and for responding to the panel's questions; and (b) that the report be noted and welcomed.
